CATSKILL RESORTS.

PREPARATIONS FOR A GREAT SEASON.

LEADING HOTELS AND PRICES-MANY GUESTS AL READY REGISTERED.

OM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNG. KINGSTON, June 20 .- Last year it is believed that over 200,000 persons visited the Catskills. In this number were included representatives of every civilized Nation. An average of $10 expended by each itor seems small in view of the fact that one gentlean paid $1,350 per week for his party of fourteen during most of the season just for rooms and board, and yet that conservative estimate would leave over $2,000,000 among the landlords and other entertainers for the brief ace of ninety days or less. Yet many of these men say that they lost money in the business last season. There are over a thousand hotels and boarding-houses scattered over the range and and in the the shadow of its aks. Not all can hope to run at a profit. The cost of a short sojourn in the range, or even a few eks there, is not great necessarily. A very moderate sum will now enable one to visit all the leading points and spend a few days in comfort. No increase in price of board is reported this season, and the old rates are of board is reported this season wholesome food, well likely to prevail. Plenty of good wholesome food, well cooked and in fair variety, with clean linen and good beds, may be had for from $5 to $8 per week, depending upon locality and rooms. Hotel life will, of course, cost much more as a rule—from $2 to $5 per day and $10 to $30 per week, exclusive of many "extras," according to the grade of the house, size and aspect of the room, time of season and length of stay. As a rule, the fees for trivial services are not so numerous or extortionate in trivial services are not so numerous or exterionate in the Catskills as at most other summer reserts, though I cannot learn that any of the waiters or porters were ever forbidden to accept coin for doing what their em-players are supposed to pay them to perform.

The largest hotel in the range is the Kaaterskill, built ployers are supposed to pay them to perform.

The largest hotel in the range is the Kaaterskill, built in 1882. About 1,300 guests can now be well cared for there. The annex and Opera House are attractive features, new last year. William F. Paige, the popular manager of hat season, is again in charge. The grounds and mountain park have been improved and beautified, and the house opens to-day. A vast number of engagements is already booked including many notable people. General Grant is down for August. He will occupy the elegant suite of rooms used by President Arthur last season.

The new Grand Hotel on Summit Mountain is second only to the Kaaterskill in size and extent. It enjoys the distinction of being the only resort on the mountain that is reached by rail direct, without change and without stage, if one does not mind a five or a ten-minute walk up the steps from the station. Captain Gillett is again the manager. A fine orchestra has been selected, and a full list of attractions is promised. The books of the house already include many prominent visitors and a heavy business is indicated.

The old Catskill Mountain House at Pine Orchard opened June 1 for its stray-dirst season. It is still under the well-known Beach management, and the famuliar form of Mr. Charles L. Beach, the pioner hotel man of the Catskills, is likely to be seen about the precincts of this historic house as usual, though too old now to take active part in the details of the house. The view from the table-rock jutting out in midsir in front of this house is in many respects unequalled by anything in the entire range. This resort is about one mile over South Mountain from Hotel Kanterskill, and a most charming ramble it is, on top of the org nearly the whole way.

The Laurel House at Kasterskill Falls is a favered spot for quiet rest and recuperation. The house is large and practically new, and guests are well entertained at moderate prices.

The Tremper House at Phoenicia is already open for its sighth season. Though down in the valley, for quiet rest and recuperation. The house is large and practically new, and guests are well entertained at moderate prices.

The Tremper House at Phœnicia is already open for its cighth season. Though down in the valley, this house has always been very popular, being generally well filled with guests. It is nearer New-York in time than any of the other large hotels.

Overlook House, on Overlook Mountain, is still basking in the smiles of Manager Haskell, who entertatus his guests at an altitude about 500 feet higher than any other in the range. His view is the most extended and his air is the coolest of them all. But to reach that summit a long stage ride must be endured. Mead's, half way up, is a very popular place, with never an empty room. His house was all taken in February last. West Hurley, on the Uister and Delaware, is the diverging point for these houses. In addition to the large hotels named many hundreds more might be spoken of, some being equally as large—as the Grant House and Prospect Park, at Catskill Village, both of which are large and cleagut. Then there is no end of hotels and boarding houses, great and small, at Hunter, framersville, Haines's Falls, Windham, Cairo, Lexington and other Gresne County points, and at Pine Hill, Phœnicia, Mount Pleasant, Shandaken, Griffin's Corners, Morgansville and Stanford, on the Uister and Delaware, Most of them report earlier applications, larger numbers and for longer stays than in previous years. They say fears of cholera in New-York are already driving thousands to seek refuge in the mountains, and the present prospect indicates the most brilliant and successful season ever known in the Catskills.

EARLY VISITORS AT LONG BRANCH.

IMPROVEMENTS-PREPARATIONS BUSY SEASON

LONG BRANCH, June 20 .- The recent hot weather has hastened the preparations for the summer eason, and all the hotels will be opened by the end of his week. The Hotel Brighton is now open. John W. Stokes, the proprietor, has had the house re-painted and repapered, and new plumbing throughout has put the hotel in the best of order. He has engaged Professor Petterman's orchestra for the season. "Uncle Dan" Van Brunt, who has been a bathing master here for thirty-five years, and at whose place no person has ever drowned, will have charge of the bathing grounds of the

Among the guests who will spend the season at this cosey little hotel are John Neuscheler, Howard P. Froth-Charles E. Parsons, L. Levenson and Alfred Benjamin and their families, of New-York; Benjamin F. Webb and family, of Brooklyn; Stewart Wilson and family and David F. Conover and family, of Philadelphia; A. Harris and family, of Austin, Tex., and William V. Snyder

The Beach House at Sea Girt is under the management of George C. Boldt, of the Hotel Belleof Philadelphia, and the season there promises to be brilliant. It is nearer the ocean than any other hotel on the coast from Maine to Florida. The wide porch on the ocean side has been decorated so as to look like an ocean steamer. In going down upon the beach one descends a companion-way. The porch is surrounded by taffrails, and at each end are anchor chains, windlasses and hawsers. The bell boys all wear sailor suits, with white duck trousers and natty hats. Among the guests of the season will be George R. Howell and family, Wilson G. Hunt and nlece, A. J. Zabriskie and Misses Zabriskie, Abner Bartlett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bishop, of New-York; General E. CURRENT GOSSIP AT SARATOGA.

GEN. GRANT THE CENTRE OF INTEREST.

CONVENTIONS-ARRIVALS-COTTAGES RENTED-THE RACE COURSE.

M THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF SARATOGA, June 20 .- While the Nation's invalid lies in a precarious condition at Mt. McGregor all other topics here are of secondary interest to the general public. "The latest news from the Mountain" is what very one asks for, and the general solicitude is made more keen by the near proximity of the distinguished patient. It is the deep hope, if not belief, that the tonic air of this region may so revive the General as to com-pletely justify the journey up here. Mt. McGregor has become a favorite objective point for drives as well as railroad excursions, and in fine part of the city along North Broadway ome familiar to many who never before left the vicinity of the big hotels. People who visited the place a few years ago would be surprised to see the number of handsome cottages built along Broadway. daratogans have become awake to the attractiveness of the finer styles of architecture, and have now scores of residences that may well compare with the villas at Newport. The exteriors of many are of polished, un-painted woods, giving an elegant effect, while the Queen Anne, Swiss and old English styles of architecture, the arched driveways, the latticed plazzas and the elegant grounds, are all that taste and money can accomplish in

With the arrival of President Grant, the sessions of two large conventions, the opening of several of the large hotels, and the sessions of the Court of Appeals week has been full of interest. The Grand Union and the Clarendon open their doors to-day. Mr. Clair, manager of the former, says that he has more rooms engaged than ever before at this time of the year, and he expects a good season. Lothian's orchestra will ar rive next month and the garden parties will be made a eature as heretofore. The United States, which opened Tuesday, already has a large number of guests and more rooms are engaged than at this season last year. Stub's orchestra will arrive in a few weeks. Congress Hall has had a large influx owing to the druggists meet

Two interesting commencements have taken place this week, those of the High School and Temple Grove Seminary. The annual sermon was preached to the seminary students by the Rev. W. R. Terrett last Sunday. The anniversary concert took place in the chapel, and the and Mrs. Stanton. On Wednesday class day was cele brated in the seminary grounds, making a pretty group, of the young ladies being in pink, two in blue and three in white Miss Powell was the president, Miss Jenks the historian Miss Powell was the president, Miss Jenks the historian, Miss Merrill the prophet, Miss Copley the vocalist and Miss McChesney gave good advice freely. The alumna met in the eventing, and the Rev. Miss Delavan, of '65, a graduate of the Boston University School of Tucology, made an address. Mrs. Granville S. Ingolsbie, of Sandy Hill, read an essay on "Woman." The graduating exercises were held on Thursday in the Second Presbyterian Church. Miss Alice Lincoln Jenks, of North Brookfield, Mass., was the valedictorian. The other essays were by Miss Incz Merrili, of Saratoza; Miss Mary Ashman Khmer, of Rock City Falls; Miss Nelie May McChesney, of Eagle Mills, N. Y.; Miss Luate Copley, of Chatham, N. Y.; and Miss Clara Piumer Ames, valedictorian, of Saratoga Springs. The graduating class of the High School celebrated Class Day on Wednesday, and Commencement on Thursday. The Town Hall was filled on the latter occasion. Miss Walter made the saintatory address, and Miss Merchant the valedictory. Diplomas differencement.

Trains are now running on the summer schedules, and to increase accommodations for trains new tracks and switches have been laid at the depot this week. The West. Bhore Railroad will to-morrow begin running through Pullman buffet cars from Washington, Bailtmore, Philadelphia and Long Branch. All other passengers will be transferred by boat from Jersey City to the new terminal station at Weehawken, where all trains will start and where New-York and Brooklyn passengers will be landed by boats. The Adirondack Railroad will begin running summer trains on July I. The delivery of The Transfer along this road by the morning trains under Mr. Schroeder's management is greatly apdrectated along the road.

Every day sees the arrival of summer cottagers and the rental of more houses. Spencer Trask, the well-known New-York banker, has come with his family to "Yaddo," their handsome country seat on Union-ave. Mr. Trask has opened his branch banking house under the Grand Union for the season. His farm is conspicious for its fine drives and grounds as well as for the fine heard of Jersey cattle there.

Captain J. B. Rutler, of South Broadway, has rented his coltage on North Breadway to Robert K. Davies, of New-York, J. Fond's Henry-st. cottage has been leased to Isaac J. McCabe, of New-York.

Two fine properties are offered for sale—Moon's Lake House, famous for fish and game dinners, will be sold owing to Mr. Moon's failing health. Charles Reed's princely palace on Union-ave. Is for sale also, as he and his wife are settled on their Tennessee stock farm and nothing cas woo them from it and the raising of thoroughbreds.

The National Association of Stove Manufacturers will hold their fourteenth annual meeting, beginning next Wednesday and hasting three days.

The Eastern Branch of the New York State Medical Association will meet at 10 a. m. next Tuesday, at the United States Hotel.

Albert Spencer, treasurer, and Charles Wheatly, secretary, of the Racing Association, both arrived this week. The improvements at the track are going ferward. Mr. Catheart will have a new box and an increase of room for the auction pools. For the French pools there will be two stands for place betting and five for straight betting. The flooring of the betting area will be of brick instead of earth as formerly. The question of admitting bookmakers is not decisively settled. Since the edict went forth against them they kave brought pressure to bear by peakinns and private argument that may cause the stewards to relent and admit them. A few stables have strived and the horses are toning up fast, already looking 25 per cent better than when they arrived. Ex-Governor Oden Bowie, of Baltimore, has seens inc three-year-olds, Marylander, Vestor, Lord Lyon and a Catesby colt; beside three good two-year-olds, Cato, Cassatt and a chestnut Catesby. Alexander & Hoffman, of Columbus, Ohio, have seven. Davis & Hall have Rossier, Vinton and five others. I. Dunneman, of Charleston, S. C., has several horses. About 500 horses are expected this summer, more than ever before. Mr. Belinont's stable has been put in readiness for the overflow. A dial will be put on the Judges' stand to indicate the time of each race. Mr. Winsaily, Jr., will probably be the starter as he was last year.

Among the prominent arrivals of the week are Congressman Frank Hiscock, of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sunvesan, Mrs. Henry B. Hyde, Miss Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. RICHFIELD SPRINGS.

READY TO OPEN THE SEASON. SANITARY IMPROVEMENTS-BRILLIANT PROSPECTS EXPECETD GUESTS.

FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE RICHFIELD SPRINGS, June 20.-This fashionable watering place is now ready for the reception of been made than ever before for the health, comfort and pleasure of visitors. Since April 1, a complete system of sewerage has been introduced throughout the village, neluding every street. No less than 25,000 of fifteen inch pipe and 25,000 yards of six inch pipe have been nd the sanitary condition of the place is as nearly perfect as it is possible to make it. The work was under the skilful management of Engineer Pratt, of Boston; and was overseen by Messrs. Urlah Welch, of the North American; McKee and McCreedy, representing the

These are the large houses the place; but the Davenport, Tuiler, Canadarago, Park Place, Derthick, National and Darrow Houses, the Tunnicliff, DeLong and Carey Cottages and the Lake House, the latter situated a mile from the village, on the shore of Canadarago Lake, are all in readines for the season's guests. The two large hotels have just undergone a thorough nouse-cleaning, and have been freshly painted, and in various ways embellished and improved. The sulphur springs have the same curative qualities and nauscating flavor as of yore; and the baths are ready to cure invalids of rheumatism, intermittent fever, ague, malaria. cutaneous diseases and a thousand-and-one other ills to which flesh is legatee. The spacious grounds of the Spring House have donned their summer attire, and contain several summer-houses and a hundred rustic benches; while the plazzas are lined with comfortable chairs and sofas of wickerwork, and ornamented with hanging-baskets and Turkish rugs. In a sentinel-like row in front of the New American stand several cacti and large urns filled with growing plants and flowers adding greatly to the appearance of the building.

Lombard's orchestra, which long since became identified with the Springs, is expected next week, and will, as heretofore, perform alternately at the New American and Spring House. The usual complement of will take place during the season, and the lawn tennis courts, bowling alleys and billiard tables are ready for the friendly fray. The picturesque hills and valleys in this part of the State never looked more beautiful than now, and the countless drives in the neighborhood of the Springs are in excellent condition. The private equip ages have already begun to arrive, and Mr. Welch say that he has more engagements for stabling than ever be fore. Myron Hilsinger has rented the Richfield Springs Driving Park for the season, and announces some races for the afternoon of the Fourth of July. They will b mile heats, best 3 in 5, to harness, National rules to govern. One will be for a purse of $75, and the other, a free-for-all, for a purse of $100.

The Elite Rink, for roller-skating, will open this even ing under the management of F. F. Billings, of Boston Music will be furnished during the season by the Casino Rink band, of Utica.

LITHIA WATER. FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, UE GOUTY DIATRIESIS, NERVOUS AND AUD DYSPEPSIA, STONE IN THE BLADDER, ETC.

Of New-York, Surgeon-General U. S. Army (retired), Pro-Fewer of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System, in the University of New-York, etc.

'I have for some time made use of the Buffalo Lithia Water in cases of a Tectima of the Nervous System, complicated with Bright's Disease of the Kithiega, or with a fointy Dathesis. The results have been entimedity attifactory. Lithia has for many years been a favorite remedy with one in like case, but the Buffalo Water certainty acts before than any extempo-raneous solution of the Lithia Satis, and is moreover buter borne by the stomach. I also acton prescribe it is those cases of Cerebral Hypercomia, resulting from over-mental work— in which the condition called Nervous Pypepsia exists—and generally with marked benefit." DR. WM. A. HAMMOND,

Late Processor of Practical Academic, Battemore Academ Onlines.
